TO THE VOTERS OF SACATON ELEMENTARY SCHOOL DISTRICT:

On Tuesday, November 7, 2023, the registered voters of the Sacaton Elementary School District of Pinal County, Arizona will be asked to vote to authorize the district to lease one or more parcels of land for a term not to exceed 99 years and to construct, improve, equip and furnish one or more buildings on such land. Your responsibility will be to indicate whether you think the authorization should be approved for your District.

Information in this pamphlet is provided to help you make an informed decision regarding the land lease question. Please review this information carefully and exercise your right to vote on Election Day, November 7, 2023. When you cast your vote, you fulfill a responsibility to your school district and determine a course of action consistent with your desires for the education of the children of your community.

Thanks to each of you for taking the time to study the issues and for taking the time to make your voice heard by voting in this election.

Sincerely,

Jill Broussard
Pinal County Superintendent of Schools
